

Dear ICOM members, dear colleagues,

On 24 June 2020 I informed the Executive Board of ICOM that I did not feel comfortable any longer in my position as member of the Board and as ICOM treasurer and had decided to resign. However, I thought it was necessary for me to stay until the ICOM-General Assembly 2020 in order to present the annual financial statement on 24 July, thus reassuring you that the ICOM financial situation is sound and perfectly transparent.

The present situation is unprecedented in ICOM. When such a crisis invests an organization, I think that the only solution for an effective change should be to launch new elections, as soon as possible. Unfortunately, the statutes do not explicitly foresee this possibility. Therefore, as I said during the General Assembly, I personally need time to understand what happened and how it could have been avoided.

I resign with a very heavy heart, because I have always enjoyed working with you and for our Association and, of course, even in the future I will support ICOM whenever I can.

From the bottom of my heart, I wish ICOM and each of you a fruitful and successful future.

Emma Nardi
ICOM Treasurer 2016-2020
